

Rafting on the Kievka River + Yelamovskie waterfalls.

Lucky Tours Company would like to present you an adventure tour consisting of rafting down the Kievka River, visiting of Lazo Nature Reserve, excursion to the mysterious Petrov Island and observing Yelamovskie waterfalls in one tour. Petrov Island is known by its ancient yew grow that was planted by a man and had a religious significance for ancient people. The island has been inhabited since 8 BC until the Middle Ages. Even now signs of human activity can be noticed.

The river Kievka 102 km length is placed in Lazovsky region of Primorsky Territory and starts from the south-west slope of Sikhote-Alin mountain chain. About 35 km can be used for rafting as its watershed has a mountain character.

Not far from this river there are beautiful Yelamovskie waterfalls, the part of the Yelamovsky spring. The largest waterfall is 20 meters high. They are placed on the foot of the mountain Lisaya (1400m high), so there are a lot of different observation levels of waterfalls. This tour also includes trekking to Yelamovskie waterfalls. Hope, you enjoy nature beauty of Primorsky territory.
